Harrods and Harvey Nicks are at the top of the street, and the gardens and tennis courts of Cadogan Place create superb views for a penthouse maisonette in Sloane House.

Set on the fifth and sixth floors, the 1540 sq ft home in a prime position among the high-fashion boutiques of fashionable Sloane Street has three bedrooms, and a reception room with a dining area and two balconies – one looking out across Cadogan Place. The property also has access to the gardens it overlooks.

For sale on nearby Cadogan Square, west of Sloane Street, is a mansion flat with 1560 sq ft of first floor living space recently refurbished by the current owners. On the southern side of the square, the apartment has a master bedroom with a southerly outlook across the square gardens, which you can also use and enjoy. There's a tennis court here too.

The apartment includes a dining room, reception room, second bedroom, and a study or third bedroom. The kitchen has a breakfast bar.
